Subject: Chronicling Bishop Jaime Soto's pilgrimage in the Philippines

Hello!

Bishop Jaime Soto is currently on pilgrimage in the Philippines with a group of clergy and laity from the Diocese of Sacramento.

On our website, we have been sharing stories from the pilgrimage, written by Bishop Soto himself:

- January 6 – First dispatch: https://www.scd.org/news/bishop-jaime-soto-shares-first-dispatch-philippines
  - Bishop Jaime Soto arrives in the Philippines, reflecting on his visit to the Bahay at Yaman Ni San Martín de Porres, a home for children living on the streets of Manila.
- January 8 – Second dispatch: https://www.scd.org/news/bishop-jaime-soto-shares-second-dispatch-philippines
  - Bishop Jaime Soto's Philippine journey continues to the region of Ilocos Norte, the City of Laoag, where he reflects on the emigrants of the region.

Our Diocesan Archivist, Phil DeLeon, is currently on the pilgrimage and sharing photos. We are regularly adding them to an album on our Diocesan Facebook Page, which can be viewed by clicking here.

LIVE-STREAMED MASS WITH BISHOP SOTO
This Wednesday, January 10 at 11am Philippine time, Bishop Soto will celebrate Mass at the Minor Basilica of Our Lady of the Most Holy Rosary of Manaoag. Radio Manaoag will be live-streaming this Mass. To view the Mass, we invite you to tune in to their Facebook page tonight, Tuesday, January 9 at 7pm Pacific Standard Time: https://www.facebook.com/ManaoagDominicanRadio

Please continue to pray for Bishop Soto and all the pilgrims as they continue their journey.

Sincerely,

BeeJae Visitacion
