For college, he transferred to Saint Peter Seminary in Bearsden, Cardross, a suburb of Glasgow, Scotland, from 1914 to 1917. FATHER MYLES LEAVES IRELAND FOR CALIFORNIA
After spending a few months with his family in Ireland, it was time for newly ordained Father Myles to set sail for the United States to begin his life of ministry. After arriving in New York, he crossed the continental United States by train and arrived in Sacramento in the fall of 1920 to begin ministry in his newly adopted Diocese of Sacramento.

FATHER MYLES BEGINS HIS LIFE JOURNEY IN MINISTRY

Father Myles began his priestly ministry in the Diocese of Sacramento in the fall of 1920 when Bishop Thomas Grace assigned him to Saint Patrick Church in Placerville as assistant to Father Thomas Hayes who was pastor. Father Myles served in Placerville for one year.

ASSISTANT AT REDDING

After serving one year in Placerville, Bishop Grace, in one of his final appointments, assigned Father Myles to Saint Joseph Church in Redding from 1921 to 1922 as assistant to Father Michael McNaboe who was pastor of Redding.

It was the custom in that era to assign newly ordained priests to one year assignments and to move these priests yearly to another parish.

This was the custom of Bishop Eugene O’Connell, first bishop of the Vicariate of Marysville, who assigned newly arrived priests to a parish for a year and then move them. These priests did not like this custom and complained to the Vatican about it.
APPOINTED ASSISTANT OF WOODLAND
Father Myles’ third appointment in 1922 was to Holy Rosary Church in Woodland to assist Father Thomas Horgan who served as pastor of Woodland from 1917 to 1926. Once again, Father Myles’ appointment was for one year.

ADMINISTRATOR OF TRUCKEE
After three years as pastor of Yerington, Father Myles was appointment administrator of Assumption Parish in Truckee where he served for six year, from 1926 to 1932.

In 1932, Father Myles was appointed pastor of Saint Joseph Parish in Lincoln where he served for three years until 1935.

PASTOR OF McCLOUD
Father Myles next appointment in 1935 was as pastor of Saint Joseph Parish in McCloud but only for a very short time.
FATHER MYLES BECOMES ILL
During his short assignment in McCloud in 1935, Father Myles became ill and took a leave of absence from ministry, going to New Mexico where he spent time to recuperate and regain his health and focus again. As his health improved, he began assisting in some parishes in New Mexico.

When he returned to the Diocese of Sacramento, he gave temporary assistance to the parishes in Gridley and Chico until he was appointed administrator of Saint John Parish in Quincy but he remained in Quincy only a few months.

RETURN TO FULL TIME MINISTRY
In 1952, Father Myles returned to full time ministry and was appointed assistant to Father Patrick McTague at Saint Joseph Parish in Yreka. He served in Yreka for three years until 1955.

NAMED PASTOR OF MOUNT SHASTA
In 1955, Bishop Robert J Armstrong appointed Father Myles to his final pastorate at Saint Anthony Parish in Mount Shasta where he served for the next fifteen years. He was the second pastor of Mount Shasta, following Father Edward Christen who established the parish.
SAINT ANTHONY PARISH CONTINUED TO DEVELOP
According to Monsignor James Casey who was a friend of Father Myles, “Through Father Myles’ pastoral zeal and the loyalty and generosity of people in the parish with diverse ethnic heritage, the new parish developed steadily. Father Myles associated with neighboring priests frequently and regularly, not only at liturgical functions, but also at recreational enterprises such as golfing, fishing and hunting.”

RETIREMENT
Conscious of his advancing age, although still active in ministry, Father Myles decided to retire from parochial administration in 1970, four years before his death, but not before celebrating his Golden Jubilee of ordination. Clergy and laity filled the church to overflowing for the Fiftieth Anniversary Mass. Father Myles invited as concelebrants a number of younger priests who had been his assistants in prior years. Bishop Alden J Bell participated in the Mass as well.

FATHER MYLES STRICKEN WITH CANCER

After his retirement, Father Myles was stricken with cancer and suffered serious pain for several months before his death. He endured intense pain with patience and resignation. He died on Thursday, October 31, 1974, the Eve of All Saints Day, at the age of 78 after spending his last days in the oncology ward of Mercy Hospital in Sacramento. His niece, Sister Mary St Michael Myles, RSM, worked at Mercy Hospital as a nurse and visited her uncle daily as he waited for the Lord to take him home.

FUNERAL MASS FOR FATHER MYLES AT SACRED HEART CHURCH, SACRAMENTO

IN MEMORIAM
Like many young priests before him, Father Myles was filled with the spirit of mission and adventure that enabled him to leave his family in Ireland and head west for an unknown future of preaching Jesus’ Gospel of Mercy that the Lord gave to his apostolic community.

As Jesus sent forth his first disciples to preach the Gospel to the ends of the earth, Father Michael was moved by that same Spirit to leave his family and friends and go forth to the American frontier to be a herald of the same Good News that Jesus had given to his apostolic community of the first century.

Father Myles requested that his body be laid to rest with his people whom he served for fifteen years in Mount Shasta. We give thanks to God for Father Michael Myles and all priests who freely gave their lives to the Lord to help build up the Kingdom of God by celebrating that Divine Love by an encounter with the Risen Christ through the sacramental signs he left us of his abiding presence. May Father Myles now rest in eternal peace.
