

DIOCESE of SACRAMENTO
CATHOLIC SCHOOLS

September 8, 2020

Dear Catholic School Community:

We have released two public service announcements for you on the diocesan website (www.scd.org). A picture is worth a thousand words, and these videos tell the story of the coming school year in motion, from the perspective of both our students and our teachers.

The first video, “A Day at School,” shows you what a school day looks like in one of our schools per our return-to-school plan. Here is the link: <https://youtu.be/fVMm2j0m1uE>

In the second video, “Dual Delivery,” two of our teachers talk about delivering instruction to students in class and at home at the same time: <https://youtu.be/zLXc0CbXuNw>. This Thursday, those teachers will host a webinar for their colleagues.

I would like to extend my gratitude to Father Larry Beck, Principal Denise Remick, and the Holy Trinity School Ministry faculty, staff, parents, and students for their hospitality, and to Tim Bradshaw of Bezin Media for filming these videos.

Thank you for choosing Catholic education.

Peace,

Lincoln Snyder
Superintendent and Executive Director of Schools
The Diocese of Sacramento
