'Trust in the Lord's promise that we will come to understand later'

By Bishop Jaime Soto

Homily from the Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper, April 9, 2020

All the martyrs of the Church understood the close communion they shared with the passion and death of the Lord Jesus. Their own sacrifices were an intimate sharing in the sacrifice of the Mass. Their deaths were a personal extension of the Mass. It is good to remind ourselves of this as we now offer the Evening

Mass of the Lord's Supper under the unusual yet necessary precautionary measures during this perplexing pandemic.

The difficult deviations from the customary rituals of the sacred Triduum can be a distraction. It may offer us an opportunity to enter more personally into the Lord's saving mystery. "It is the Passover of the Lord." (Ex 12:11) This pandemic is the Passover through which Jesus now leads us. We should not linger longingly over what was always done, but attend more closely to what the Lord Jesus does now. While our hearts ache because we cannot take communion, may we more readily take up the cross of our Savior and Shepherd, Jesus.

In the Gospel this evening (Jn 13:1-15), Simon Peter did not understand what Jesus was doing when he took off his garments, wrapped a towel around his waist, and began to wash his disciples' feet. He strongly resisted that the Lord would do that for him. The patient teacher and master responded, "What I am doing, you do not understand now, but you will understand later." These kind words to a good friend cut deep into our own hearts this night. We do not understand what the Lord is doing in the midst of this pandemic. Trust in the Lord's promise that we will come to understand later.

Listen even more closely to what he said after he had finished washing the feet of his disciples. He returned to the table and said as their teacher and master, "You ought to wash one another's feet. I have given you a model to follow, so that as I have done for you, you should also do." In this beautiful ritual washing, was Jesus only referring to the washing of the feet? The ritual itself points to something more.

The image of Jesus with only a towel wrapped around his waist is a prelude to the scene of Christ crucified on the cross. From the cross of Calvary, Jesus washed away the sins of the world with the water and blood flowing from his pierced side. Even this, do we understand the merciful mystery revealed on the cross? Can we comprehend the intimate communion between the Last Supper and cross? Both become the table of communion and the altar of sacrifice. Both the washing of the feet and outpouring of blood and water from the cross are single saving moment because of which Jesus sternly instructed Simon Peter, "Unless I wash you, you will have no inheritance with me."

This why St. Paul could say so confidently to the Corinthians in the second reading, "as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes." (I Cor 11:23-26) In these days we all cannot eat this bread and drink this cup. Still, our aching hunger, the many sacrifices and sufferings endured in these days, can proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes. There is a mystical communion that unites us with the saints and martyrs whose lives were a communion in the saving death of the Lord. For this reason, sealed in main altar of our Cathedral is the relic of St. Toribio Romo, one of the great martyrs of Mexico.

We now place our sufferings and sacrifices, our worries and woes, on this altar as we join sacramentally with the passion and death of the Lord. May the Lord Jesus wash our sins and purify our hearts with his undying mercy and undaunted hope.

Recuerden, mis hermanos y hermanas, que aquí el altar mayor de nuestra santa catedral, está insertada una reliquia del gran mártir mexicano, San Toribio Romo. Su presencia aquí en el altar mayor hace presente la fuerte conexión entre el Sacrificio de la Misa ofrecido por Cristo crucificado y los sacrificios de sus discípulos. Por los sufrimientos ofrecidos en unión con Jesús experimentamos una comunión viva y personal con el Cordero de Dios que quita los pecados del mundo.

Por ese motivo, Jesús celebró la última cena con sus discípulos para que participaran con él en su pasión y su muerte. Por cada Eucaristía, Jesús nos invita a unirnos con él en su sacrificio. Por eso dijo a Simón Pedro en el evangelio de esta tarde, "Si no te lavo, no tendrás parte conmigo". (Jn 13:1-15) El lavatorio de los pies habla del lavatorio de la cruz. Aunque no podemos tomar la comunión en estos días de la pandemia si podemos tomar con más intención personal, la cruz de Cristo.

No hay nadie que no ha sido impactado por la pandemia y todas las medidas justas y necesarias para erradicarla. Se sienten muchos excluidos de las costumbres y ritos de estos días sagrados. Mejor que reconozcamos las muchas maneras con que Cristo nos ha incluido y nos ha incorporado más personalmente en la obra salvadora.

Simón Pedro en un momento frustrado declaró a Jesús que no quería que el Señor lavara sus pies. El buen Maestro y Señor le respondió cariñosamente, "Lo que estoy haciendo tú no lo entiendes ahora, pero lo comprenderás más tarde". No podemos entender todo lo que está sucediendo en estos días. Confiemos que el Señor Jesús siga siendo nuestro buen Pastor, quien ofreció su vida por el rebaño. No podemos comprender, pero si podemos confiar. En esta confianza de fe y amor, estaremos con una plena comunión con Cristo.

GENERAL INFORMATION REGARDING THE SACRAMENTS

GUIDELINES FOR CELEBRATING THE SACRAMENT OF MARRIAGE

REQUIREMENTS

The Catholic Church has established a number of basic requirements for the celebration of the Sacrament of Marriage. In order to fulfill these requirements, to ensure sacred celebration of the Sacrament and to facilitate preparation for marriage, the Diocese of Sacramento has adopted the following policies:

1. INITIAL CONTACT

Engaged couples desiring to be married in the Catholic Church must contact their parish priest, deacon or pastoral minister at least six months prior to the anticipated wedding date. It is recommended that couples make contact with the parish at the very beginning of their engagement.

2. ASSESSMENT PROCESS

Every couple is asked to participate in an assessment process with the priest, deacon or pastoral minister. This process is designed to assist both the couple and the priest/deacon or pastoral minister in assessing the engaged couple's readiness for marriage. The process begins with an initial interview with the priest, deacon or pastoral minister. As part of the process, each engaged person is to complete a questionnaire or inventory tool.

The inventory tools which are approved in the Diocese of Sacramento are FOCCUS (Facilitating Open Couple Communication, Understanding and Study), PREPARE/ENRICH, FULLY ENGAGED and PMI (Pre-Marital Inventory). A decision to proceed with, or delay, the wedding is made by the facilitator and the couple following the assessment process. The wedding date will be finalized only at this time.

3. SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES

The bridegroom and bride are to share with the priest, deacon or pastoral minister any of the following circumstances:

- If one or both are under the age of twenty (20);
- If there is a pregnancy involved;
- If they are presently cohabiting (living together);
- If one of the engaged is not Catholic;
- If one or both have been married before in any type of ceremony or common law union;
- If they are now civilly married and wish to have their marriage convalidated in the Catholic Church.

It is a canonical requirement ("canonical form") that a Catholic be married before a properly delegated priest or deacon and two witnesses. A Catholic who marries outside the church without a dispensation from the canonical form does so invalidly, i.e., the Church does not recognize the marriage. Some circumstances require special steps to assist the couple in preparing for marriage in the Church. If any of these special circumstances exist, it does not necessarily mean that one cannot be married in the Church. However, it does mean that an honest discussion of these circumstances should take place between the couple and the marriage preparation facilitator.

4. PLACE OF THE WEDDING

Two parties who reside outside the diocese and are requesting to be married within the diocese should normally do their marriage preparation in their home parish/diocese. Since the parish church is the spiritual home of the family of God and the heart of sacramental life and ministry, when two Catholics marry, they are expected to marry in the parish church of either the bride or the groom. For any exceptions, please refer to the diocesan policy.

5. REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

The priest, deacon or pastoral minister who is preparing the engaged persons for marriage will assist them in obtaining the following documents:

- Baptismal Certificate(s): The baptismal certificate of the Catholic(s) should be issued within the last six months and include any notations (regarding other sacraments received). A certificate of baptism is also required of a non-Catholic Christian.
- A Letter of Freedom (Form B) is to be completed by two witnesses on behalf of each engaged person (i.e. two forms for each of the engaged). Forms are available at the parish.
- A Pre-Nuptial Inquiry (Form A) is to be completed by each of the engaged. This inquiry includes questions regarding one's freedom to marry and one's views on Christian marriage.
- State of California Marriage License: Unless the license is present, no wedding can occur.
- Confirmation Certificate(s): If it can be celebrated without serious inconveniences, Catholics who have not yet received the sacrament of confirmation are to receive it before being admitted to marriage.
- Permission for a Mixed Marriage (for a Catholic to marry a person baptized in a non-Catholic Christian denomination).
- Petition for Dispensation for Disparity of Worship (for a Catholic to marry a non-baptized person).

All documents are to be kept on file at the parish where the wedding takes place.

6. REQUIRED MARRIAGE PREPARATION PROGRAMS

Marriage Preparation Programs

There are three different formal marriage preparation programs in the Diocese of Sacramento. The pastor or his delegate will meet with the engaged couple to determine which program best meets the couple's needs:

- 1) Parish-based marriage preparation class. These classes consist of four to six short sessions (one to two hours) usually spaced a week apart, held in small group settings at a host parish. Though a host parish will offer these classes mainly for the sake of its own engaged couples, it may also welcome couples from other parishes.
- 2) Engaged Encounter weekend. This is a weekend retreat experience presented by two married Catholic couples and a priest. It is designed to help engaged couples self-reflect, communicate, understand their sexuality, etc. The main thrust of the weekend is personal reflection and dialogue. The retreat is offered five times per year at a local retreat center. For more information and to register, go to <http://SacEE.org>.
- 3) Online marriage preparation. For engaged couples unable to attend either a parish-based marriage preparation class or the Engaged Encounter weekend, an online course is available. This interactive course lasts from one week (minimum) to three months (maximum), depending upon the couple's pace. Each couple is assigned a personal instructor who follows them throughout the course. For more information and to register, go to <http://www.catholicmarriageprep.com>.

Natural Family Planning Overview Session

In Natural Family Planning (NFP), the couple understands, accepts and uses their God-given phases of fertility and infertility for the purpose of achieving or avoiding pregnancy. In this way, the unitive and procreative, the love-giving and life-giving meanings of sexual intercourse are maintained together in a responsible way. The NFP component for marriage preparation is to be a minimum of one full hour of information and discussion provided by an individual or couple with specific training and expertise in NFP. A certificate of attendance will be given to the couple and must be submitted to the pastor or his delegate.

A current list of NFP instructors in the Sacramento area is available at www.scddec.org/nfp-teachers. If an instructor is not available from this list, the couple may receive this introductory class from a certified instructor outside of the Diocese in either a live class setting or on-line. Contact the Diocesan NFP Coordinator at 916-733-0133 to discuss.

7. CELEBRATION OF CEREMONY BY VISITING PRIEST OR DEACON

If a priest or deacon other than the one assigned to the parish where the wedding is held is to witness the exchange of vows, he must receive specific delegation from a priest of that parish in order to officiate at the ceremony. To make these arrangements, the engaged couple must inform the parish immediately of their desire to have a visiting priest or deacon officiate the ceremony.

If the priest or deacon is from out of town, or is not able to handle the couple's preparation, it remains the responsibility of the local parish priest, deacon or pastoral minister.

8. CELEBRATING OF THE SACRAMENTS

Catholic engaged persons are expected to celebrate the Sacrament of Penance (regularly) and the Sacrament of Holy Eucharist (at least once a week on Sunday) as part of their preparation process. The celebration of the sacraments will prepare the couple for a more meaningful experience of the wedding liturgy and deepen their relationship with Jesus Christ who is the source of fruitful married life.

9. PREPARATION FOR THE MARRIAGE LITURGY

It is the responsibility of the engaged couple to take seriously the planning of the wedding liturgy. To assist the couple, suggested readings, music guidelines and a wedding planning sheet are available from the parish.

10. ADDITIONAL PARISH REQUIREMENTS

In addition to the above requirements, there may be additional requirements of the particular parish.

PARTICIPATION IN THE MOST HOLY EUCHARIST

Canon 916: A person who is conscious of grave sin is not to celebrate Mass or receive the body of the Lord without previous sacramental confession unless there is a grave reason and there is no opportunity to confess; in this case the person is to remember the obligation to make an act of perfect contrition which includes the resolution of confessing as soon as possible.

Canon 917: A person who has already received the Most Holy Eucharist can receive it a second time on the same day only within the eucharistic celebration in which the person participates...

Canon 919 § 1: A person who is to receive the Most Holy Eucharist is to abstain for at least one hour before holy communion from any food and drink, except for only water and medicine.

Canon 919 § 3: The elderly, the infirm, and those who care for them can receive the Most Holy Eucharist even if they have eaten something within the preceding hour.

GUIDELINES FOR THE RECEPTION OF BAPTISM

Baptism of Infants

Canon 867 § 1: Parents are obliged to see to it that infants are baptized within the first weeks after birth; as soon as possible after the birth, or even before it, parents are to go to the pastor to request the sacrament for their child and to be prepared for it properly.

§ 2: An infant in danger of death is to be baptized without any delay.

Canon 868 § 1: For the licit baptism of an infant it is necessary that:

- the parents or at least one of them or the person who lawfully takes their place gives consent;
- there be a founded hope that the infant will be brought up in the Catholic religion; if such a hope is altogether lacking, the baptism is to be put off according to the prescriptions of particular law and the parents are to be informed of the reason.

§ 2: The infant of Catholic parents, in fact of non-Catholic parents also, who is in danger of death is licitly baptized even against the will of the parents.

Canon 872: Insofar as possible, one to be baptized is to be given a sponsor who is to assist an adult in Christian initiation, or, together with the parents, to present an infant at the baptism, and who will help the baptized to lead a Christian life in harmony with baptism, and to fulfill faithfully the obligations connected with it.

Canon 873: Only one male or one female sponsor or one of each sex is to be employed.

Canon 874 § 1: To be admitted to the role of sponsor, a person must:

- be designated by the one to be baptized, by the parents or the one who takes their place or, in their absence, by the pastor or minister and is to have the qualifications and intention of performing this role;
- have completed the sixteenth year...
- be a Catholic who has been confirmed and has already received the sacrament of the Most Holy Eucharist and leads a life in harmony with the faith and the role to be undertaken;
- not be bound by any canonical penalty legitimately imposed or declared;
- not be the father or the mother of the one to be baptized.

§ 2: A baptized person who belongs to a non-Catholic ecclesial community may not be admitted except as a witness to baptism and together with a Catholic sponsor.

Baptism of Adults and Children of Catechetical Age

Adults and children of catechetical age seeking baptism participate in the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA). This process, which includes liturgical rites, a program of formation and catechetical instruction, should be in place in each parish. Please refer to the Diocesan RCIA Guidelines for additional details.

GENERAL LAWS OF FAST AND ABSTINENCE

Canon 1249: All members of the Christian faithful in their own way are bound to do penance in virtue of divine law; in order that all may join in a common observance of penance, penitential days are prescribed in which the Christian faithful in a special way pray, exercise works of piety and charity, and deny themselves by fulfilling their responsibilities more faithfully and especially by observing fast and abstinence according to the norm of the following canons:

Canon 1250: All Fridays through the year and the time of Lent are penitential days and times through the universal Church.

Canon 1252: All persons who have completed their fourteenth year are bound by the law of abstinence; all adults are bound by the law of fast up to the beginning of their sixtieth year. Nevertheless, pastors and parents are to see to it that minors who are not bound by the law of fast and abstinence are educated in an authentic sense of penance.

Canon 1253: It is for the conference of bishops to determine more precisely the observance of fast and abstinence and to substitute in whole or in part for fast and abstinence other forms of penance, especially works of charity and exercises of piety.

While abstinence from eating meat is observed on every Friday during Lent and abstinence and fasting are observed on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, in 1966, the United States bishops determined that penances other than abstinence from meat could be practiced on Fridays throughout the year. Nonetheless, every Friday during the year is “a day of self-denial and mortification in prayerful remembrance of the passion of Jesus Christ.” The bishops added that among freely chosen penitential practices, “we give first place to abstinence from flesh meat. We do so in the hope that the Catholic community will ordinarily continue to abstain from meat by free choice as formerly we did in obedience to Church law.” (Complementary Norms on Penance and Abstinence, 1966)

GUIDELINES FOR CHRISTIAN BURIAL

Canon 1176 § 1: Deceased members of the Christian faithful must be given ecclesiastical funerals according to the norm of law.

§ 2: Ecclesiastical funerals, by which the Church seeks spiritual support for the deceased, honors their bodies, and at the same time brings the solace of hope to the living, must be celebrated according to the norm of the liturgical laws.

§ 3: The Church earnestly recommends that the pious custom of burying the bodies of the deceased be observed; nevertheless, the Church does not prohibit cremation unless it was chosen for reasons contrary to Christian doctrine.

Cremation (from the Order of Christian Burial)

413: Although cremation is now permitted, it does not enjoy the same value as burial of the body. The Church clearly prefers and urges that the body of the deceased be present for the funeral rites, since the presence of the human body better expresses the values which the Church affirms in those rites.

415: When extraordinary circumstances make the cremation of the body the only feasible choice, pastoral sensitivity must be exercised by priests, deacons, and others who minister to the family of the deceased.

417: The cremated remains of a body should be treated with the same respect given to the human body from which they came. This includes the use of a worthy vessel to contain the ashes, the manner in which they are carried, the care and attention to appropriate placement and transport, and the final disposition. The cremated remains should be buried in a grave or entombed in a mausoleum or columbarium. The practice of scattering cremated remains on the sea, from the air, or on the ground, or keeping cremated remains in the home of a relative or friend of the deceased are not the reverent disposition that the Church requires.

By virtue of an indult granted by the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments, the celebration of the Funeral Liturgy, including Mass, in the presence of the cremated remains of the body of a deceased person, may be permitted by the Diocesan Bishop on a case by case basis.

DIRECTIVES FOR FIRST PENANCE AND FIRST COMMUNION

Canon 914: It is the responsibility, in the first place, of parents and those who take the place of parents as well as of the pastor to see that children who have reached the use of reason are correctly prepared and are nourished by the divine food as early as possible, preceded by sacramental confession; it is also for the pastor to be vigilant lest any children come to the Holy Banquet who have not reached the use of reason or whom he judges are not sufficiently disposed.

The following guidelines incorporate the pastoral norm of the universal Church and particular law of the Diocese of Sacramento:

- Children are to be prepared for First Penance and receive the Sacrament of Penance prior to receiving First Communion. Both sacraments would generally be received in grade two. First Penance would normally be received a couple of months or more before First Communion.
- In a given parish, First Communion could be postponed to third grade, if indicated by available resources, the number of children or the time needed for adequate preparation of both children and parents.
- The readiness required for the Sacrament of Penance consists in the capacity to discern between right and wrong, together with an understanding, appropriate to the child's age, of what sin is. The readiness required for First Communion is not dissimilar: the ability to recognize the difference between the Eucharist and ordinary bread (and wine).
- Children who are well prepared for Penance generally welcome this opportunity to experience God's mercy. Parents/guardians of a child occasionally may indicate that their child is “too young” for Penance. In such a case, after due pastoral discernment, delay of both Penance and Communion is often the most suitable resolution.
- The universal law, as reiterated by the particular law of our Diocese, does not permit the parish program to orient the class as a whole away from receiving First Penance prior to First Communion. The pastoral norm is: First Penance prior to First Communion.
- Delaying the preparation and reception of First Penance until sometime after First Communion is not permitted by the universal Church or by the Diocese of Sacramento.

HISTORY OF THE DIOCESE OF SACRAMENTO

In 1850, the city of Sacramento was a mission of the Church of Saint Francis, in San Francisco. Today, it is the See city of the Catholic Diocese of Sacramento, comprising 42,000 square miles of territory.

On August 10, 1850, Father Peter Anderson, OP, celebrated the first Mass in Northern California, in a private home on 5th and L Streets, in the city of Sacramento. Anderson was a Dominican priest and a missionary. He had been sent to California by his provincial, Father Joseph Sadoc Alemany, OP, who later became the first American bishop in California.

Included in the congregation of that first Mass was the Honorable Peter Burnett, the first governor of California. He was so convinced that Catholicism had come to Sacramento to stay that he gave Father Anderson a plot of land on 7th and K Streets. It became the future site of the first of four churches named after Saint Rose of Lima, the patron saint of the seminary at which Anderson studied in Kentucky.

The first of the four churches was a simple wooden frame structure that went up rapidly enough and came right down again with a strong wind. Unfortunately, Father Anderson didn't live long enough to see the church; he died of exhaustion and sickness while helping the sick during a cholera epidemic in Sacramento, just three months after he arrived. He was, in the full sense of the word, a martyr of charity—and recognized as such as early as 1850.

On September 27, 1860, after 10 years of sending missionaries into Northern California from San Francisco, the Marysville vicariate was established. It included all of Northern California and most of the state of Nevada. The first Vicar Apostolic was Bishop Eugene O'Connell, who had previously been a professor at All Hallows Seminary in Dublin, Ireland. His reaction to being named bishop was, "I am condemned to the mines!"

By March 3, 1868, the vicariate of Marysville had sufficient priests and people that it could stand on its own as a diocese. Consequently, Pope Pius IX created the Grass Valley Diocese, with Bishop Eugene O'Connell as its first and founding bishop. He served from 1868 until March 17, 1884, when he resigned. He died in Los Angeles on December 4, 1891.

The man who took O'Connell's place as bishop of the Grass Valley Diocese was one of the legendary figures in California history, Patrick Manogue. Student, gold miner, seminarian, and priest of the Comstock, Manogue built the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament when he became the first and founding bishop of a new diocese created on May 28, 1886, by Pope Leo XIII. The new Diocese of Sacramento was created out of the old Grass Valley Diocese, to which were added 10 counties in Northern California and eight in Nevada.

Bishop Patrick Manogue died on February 27, 1895, in the cathedral rectory. His good friend and the rector of the cathedral, Father Thomas Grace, was present at his death.

On June 16, 1896, Father Grace (1841-1921) was consecrated the second bishop of the Diocese of Sacramento. For 25 years, Bishop Grace guided the diocese through a period of transition from its pioneer days to a more modern period. He was indefatigable in traveling the length and breadth of the diocese, even against the advice of friends.

The next bishop of Sacramento was Father Patrick J. Keane, DD (1872-1928), a priest of the Archdiocese of San Francisco. He was consecrated as an auxiliary bishop by Bishop Grace on December 14, 1920, and succeeded him as the third bishop of the diocese on March 17, 1922. His short tenure of six years was characterized by the formation of a system of parochial schools. He died September 1, 1928.

The fourth man to be consecrated bishop of Sacramento was Father Robert Armstrong. Born in San Francisco in 1884, he and his family moved to the Pacific Northwest, where he lived most of his life until he was appointed bishop on January 4, 1929. Previously, he had served for many years as parish priest in the Diocese of Seattle.

For 28 years, Robert Armstrong served as bishop of a diocese that originally comprised 91,562 miles. He inaugurated a period of considerable growth in which over 28 new parishes were established; the work of caring for the socially disadvantaged was professionalized; and the quality of Catholic schools was upgraded. Bishop Armstrong died, after a long illness, on January 14, 1957.

Most Reverend Joseph T. McGucken, STD, LL.D, auxiliary bishop of Los Angeles, was appointed Coadjutor Bishop of Sacramento on October 26, 1955, and succeeded to the See upon the death of Bishop Armstrong. He was born March 13, 1902, in Los Angeles, and was ordained in Rome, January 16, 1928.

On February 21, 1962, Pope John XXIII appointed Bishop McGucken fifth Archbishop of San Francisco, where he was installed on April 3, 1962. At the same time, His Holiness announced a sweeping change in Northern California diocesan boundaries with the creation of three new dioceses: Oakland, Santa Rosa and Stockton. Sacramento ceded five counties to the new jurisdiction, Del Norte, Humboldt, Calaveras, Tuolumne and Mono; and added Solano County, formerly a part of the Archdiocese of San Francisco.

Pope John XXIII, on March 30, 1962, appointed the Most Reverend Alden J. Bell, DD, auxiliary bishop of Los Angeles, to become the sixth spiritual leader of the Sacramento Diocese. He was solemnly installed on May 15, 1962, in the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament.

On September 15, 1966, Alpine County was transferred from the Diocese of Sacramento to the Diocese of Stockton by Sacred Decree.

On February 26, 1974, Pope Paul VI appointed John S. Cummins as an auxiliary to Bishop Bell. However, within three years, he was selected as the second bishop of the Oakland Diocese.

Bishop Bell retired on July 11, 1979, at age 75. His years in the Diocese of Sacramento were busy ones since they demanded a flexibility in allowing and promoting the changes brought about because of the Second Vatican Council. He surrounded himself with people who were leaders in the field of social action and education. He also strongly encouraged the emerging lay ministry in the diocese. Bishop Bell died on August 28, 1982.

Five months after Bishop Bell retired, Pope John Paul II named Francis A. Quinn, then an auxiliary bishop of San Francisco, as the seventh bishop of the Diocese of Sacramento. He was installed on February 18, 1980, in the Sacramento Memorial Auditorium.

Two years later, on September 1, 1981, John Paul II selected Father Alphonse Gallegos, OAR, Director of the Hispanic Affairs Division of the California Catholic Conference, as an auxiliary bishop to Bishop Quinn. He was ordained auxiliary bishop in the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament on November 4, 1981. After 10 years of pastoral ministry characterized by a special outreach to minority groups, Bishop Gallegos' life was cut short in an automobile accident. Thousands of people gathered for his burial rites in the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament on October 11, 1991.

Bishop Francis Quinn's service to the Diocese of Sacramento was characterized by compassion, understanding, and the ability to choose good men and women to whom he delegated authority to promote and proclaim the Gospel of Christ in an increasingly complex world.

Bishop Quinn called for a year of celebration as the diocese reached its 100th birthday: 1886-1986. It was a year characterized by remembering our own history as well as a preparation for the celebration. The event itself was picked up by local television companies and filmed.

Under Bishop Quinn's guidance, a diocesan-wide spiritual renewal program, called "Renew," took root and flourished. A Pastoral Council consisting of priests, religious and laity was formed, which continues to this day. Its purpose is to represent life in the diocese and act as advisor to the bishop in his pastoral responsibilities.

During Bishop Quinn's tenure, seven new parishes, several missions, two elementary schools and one high school were established. In 1992, a group of consultants met to prepare the second Diocesan Pastoral Plan.

Bishop Quinn's request to retire was accepted in 1993. He dedicated the next 13 years to ministry with Native Americans in and around Tucson, Ariz. He returned to Sacramento in 2007 and resided at Mercy McMahon Terrace. He died on March 21, 2019.

On November 30, 1993, Pope John Paul II named Bishop William K. Weigand as successor to Bishop Francis Quinn. The former Bishop of Salt Lake City was installed in the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament on January 27, 1994, as the eighth bishop of the Diocese of Sacramento.

When the Diocesan Pastoral Center was completed early in 1994, the Bishop's Office relocated to the new building at 21st & Broadway. So, too, did twelve of the diocesan departments, which had previously been at a number of different locations in the city of Sacramento. The people who staff these departments aid in promoting the Church's mission to proclaim Christ and the Gospel. The Pastoral Center was blessed by Bishop Weigand on June 10, 1994.

On November 25, 1997, Pope John Paul II named Father Richard J. Garcia, from the Diocese of San Jose, the fourth auxiliary bishop of Sacramento. He was ordained by Bishop Weigand in the Cathedral on January 28, 1998. Nine years later, on December 19, 2006, Pope Benedict XVI appointed Bishop Garcia the fourth bishop of the Monterey Diocese. He was installed on January 30, 2007. While serving as Auxiliary Bishop, he served as Moderator of the Curia and Vicar for Hispanics and Other Ethnic Ministries. In addition, he represented the Church to countless pastoral and civic groups and, in particular, gave maximum quality time to the young people in our schools and youth groups. Bishop Garcia died on July 11, 2018.

To celebrate the Jubilee Year 2000, many faithful participated in pilgrimages to certain key churches in the diocese, an ecumenical event at Arco Arena, a Eucharistic Congress and other events. In addition, all the priests gathered for a historic five-day convocation.

During the convocation of priests in October 2000, Bishop Weigand proposed that a Diocesan Synod be held for the first time since 1929. After three years of preparation, clergy, religious and laity came together October 11-13, 2004 at St. Isidore Parish in Yuba City. Over three days, more than 400 synod members participated in a fruitful process of identifying seven main pastoral initiatives to guide the Diocese of Sacramento over the next five to ten years. The process to implement the synod initiatives was launched immediately after the closing of the synod.

Major renovations continued on the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament, which reopened in November 2005. Partial financial support for the Cathedral renovation was made possible by a successful diocesan capital campaign carried out in 2001 and 2002, which raised over $75 million for diocesan and parochial projects.

On October 11, 2007, Pope Benedict XVI named Bishop Jaime Soto, then auxiliary bishop of the Diocese of Orange, as coadjutor bishop of the Diocese of Sacramento. Bishop Soto was welcomed into the diocese on November 19, 2007. On November 29, 2008, Bishop William Weigand retired and Bishop Jaime Soto succeeded him as the ninth Bishop of Sacramento. Bishop Soto was born in Inglewood, Calif., and grew up in Stanton in Orange County. He graduated from St. Polycarp School and Mater Dei High School. He studied for the priesthood at St. John's Seminary in Camarillo, receiving a bachelor's degree in philosophy and a master's degree in divinity. He was ordained for the Diocese of Orange in June 1982. He later earned a master's degree in social work from Columbia University in New York City. He served with Catholic Charities in the Diocese of Orange for many years, as well as Vicar for the Hispanic Community. He was appointed Auxiliary Bishop of Orange on March 23, 2000 and was ordained on May 31, 2000.

On Jan. 24, 2014, Pope Francis appointed Msgr. Myron J. Cotta from the Diocese of Fresno as the fifth auxiliary bishop of Sacramento. He was ordained by Bishop Jaime Soto in the Cathedral on March 25, 2014. He grew up the Merced County community of Dos Palos. He attended public and Catholic schools in Dos Palos and graduated from Dos Palos High School. He later attended West Hills Junior College and entered St. John's College Seminary in Camarillo, Calif., in 1980 to finish his undergraduate studies and continued at the major seminary, where he finished his theological studies and received his master's degree in divinity. He was ordained to the priesthood for the Diocese of Fresno on Sept. 12, 1987. He served in various assignments in the Diocese of Fresno. During his four years in the Diocese of Sacramento, Bishop Cotta served as Vicar General and director of ecumenical and inter-religious affairs. He was been instrumental in overseeing prison and jail ministry in the diocese. Pope Francis on Jan. 23, 2018 appointed Bishop Cotta as Bishop of the Diocese of Stockton, succeeding Bishop Stephen E. Blaire, who has served the Stockton Diocese since March 16, 1999. Bishop Cotta was installed as the sixth bishop of Stockton on March 15, 2018.

Appeal

Your gift matters in Northern California

Your gift helps more than 100 programs to assist people suffering great loss, the indignities of poverty, domestic violence, mental illness and much much more.

"The Church came to our side at the most terrifying time in our lives. What we lost in the Carr Fire has been replaced with love and generosity beyond anything we ever expected. Thank you for supporting this live-saving work."
