Subject: World Day of Consecrated Life – February 2, 2021

The Office of Priestly & Religious Vocations invites you to acknowledge and celebrate our consecrated religious women and men on Sunday, February 2, 2021.

You can find more information/materials at www.USCCB.org, including prayers of the faithful for Consecrated Life (<http://www.usccb.org/beliefs-and-teachings/vocations/consecrated-life/year-of-consecrated-life/upload/Intercessions-YCL.pdf>). In addition, you can visit National Religious Vocation Conference webpage at <https://nrvc.net/274/publication/4171/article/10041-world-day-for-consecrated-life-february-2-2018>.

The following are some ideas that may be considered to celebrate and acknowledge World Day of Consecrated Life and promote vocations:

For Parishes and/or Parish Vocation Committees

- A Holy Hour for Vocations and live streaming it.
- If there have been members of your parish that have joined a religious institute, post their pictures in your website/ bulletin/ atrium and invite people to write a card thanking them for their consecration.
- Host a prayer service and reception through Zoom or You Tube.
- Include an ad in your bulletin with a message to encourage parishioners to pray for, acknowledge or celebrate a religious sister or religious brother or priest that they may know (see suggested bulletin ad on page two).

For Schools or Parishes: We encourage the following activity for community members who would like to send a meaningful note to encourage and celebrate this special day for religious sisters and religious brothers or priests :

- School/Parish with the Presence of Religious Sisters or Religious Brothers or Priests: If your parish has the privilege of having presence of a religious sisters or religious brothers or priests at your parish, invite parishioners, students of the religious education program and school to write a card for the sisters/brothers thanking them for their consecration.
- School/Parish without the Presence of Religious Sisters or Religious Brothers or Priests: If your parish does not have the presence of religious sisters or religious brothers or priests, if you wish, you may mail a card to their religious community (page two of this memorandum will include addresses).

Please include the following ad in your bulletin to create awareness in our community, acknowledge and celebrate Consecrated Life!
