Newman Connection

English

The Diocese of Sacramento is partnering with Newman Connection to bridge our diocesan youth to a campus ministry wherever they decide to begin their new college life. Be on the lookout for resources on Newman Connection. You can also help connect students to campus ministries, the process is simple:

- Send Newman Ministries the student’s name, prospective college, and contact info
- Newman will share the student’s information with the campus minister of the student’s college
- The campus minister will reach out and invite the student to be a part of their campus ministry community before the student even shows up on campus
